

Virginia Seitz, a partner at Sidley Austin LLP, is special outside counsel to the Major League Baseball Players Association.

Seitz recently rejoined Sidley after serving as the Assistant Attorney General for the Office of Legal Counsel in the U. S. Department of Justice from 2011-2013. Prior to becoming Assistant Attorney General, Seitz served as outside counsel to the MLBPA for almost 25 years, advising the Association on a wide breadth of labor, collective bargaining, antitrust, international, and other union-related legislative, statutory and regulatory matters.

Seitz, a graduate of Buffalo Law School, served as a law clerk for Judge Harry Edwards of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit and for U.S. Supreme Court Justice William Brennan. She received her bachelor's degree, summa cum laude, from Duke University and was a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford University.
